

Presentations & Workshop

"The Union of ART & Math – The Original Fractal Snowflake" by Mary A. Spytz, BSc.

(physics), all the way from Edmonton, Alberta. Mary has 15 years of creative art/craft/math experience. Educating math students about fractals, making and selling her unique and beautiful paper fractal snowflakes. She will share her passion for snowflakes & fractals and math & art.

Original fractal snowflake Christmas decoration by Mary A.

Original fractal snowflake by Mary A.

Snowflake photo by Josh Shackelford

Tuesday Talk presentation at the Sechelt Library

(5797 Cowrie Street, Sechelt)

The Union of ART & Math. The Original Fractal Snowflake.

Tues Oct 10

1:30pm-3:00pm

Admission is free. Please register at the Library.

604 885 3260

Ripping. Cutting. Jumping Through Paper. Fractal Snowflake WORKSHOP. Make your own Fractal Snowflake Christmas decoration

Wed Oct 11

1:00m-3:00pm

Sunshine Coast Arts Centre
(5714 Medusa Street, Sechelt)
in the Art Studio

Tickets/registration $25
includes materials.

Available the Sechelt Visitor Centre
(only 20 spots)

The Union of ART & Math. The Original Fractal Snowflake. Presentation.

Thurs Oct 12

7:00pm-8:30pm

Sunshine Coast Arts
Centre
(5714 Medusa Street, Sechelt)
in the Doris Crowston
Gallery

Admission by donation

For more information contact Sherryl Latimer 604 885 3260 or sherryl.latimer@secheltlibrary.ca

With support from

Space to think

